MUNICIPAL MARKET OF SÃO PAULO ("MERCADÃO")

The famous market is located in the heart of the historical district of the capital city of São Paulo.

The building was opened in 1933 and occupies an area of 12,600 square meters. The architect responsible for its construction was Ramos de Azevedo, the same of the Municipal Theatre and the Pinacoteca.

There are 300 stands that sell fresh vegetables and fruits, meat, poultry, fish and seafood of all kinds, pasta, and sweets. Mercadão is also famous for having spices from different parts of the world.

There are more than 1,500 people working at this fantastic market every day.

Today, Mercadão is a great tourist attraction in São Paulo because of its restaurants, too. There are 38 places to eat there. Many people go to Mercadão to have the traditional mortadella sandwich.

Mercado Municipal de São Paulo
Rua Cantareira, 306 - Centro - São Paulo.
